6 Context

Risk exists in all aspects of Council's business. The level of risk that Council faces at any one time is the combination of the likelihood of an event occurring and the consequences if it happened.

Risk for Council is likely to occur in three main areas:

6.1 Strategic Risks

Strategic Risks relate primarily to the role and responsibilities of the elected Council in the following areas:

- Reputation
- Managing stakeholder expectations
- Asset and Resource Management
- Strategic Planning
- Integrated Planning and Reporting

- Community and Civic Leadership
- Financial Sustainability
- Accountability
- Governance

6.2 Operational Risks

Operational risks arise directly from the day to day operations of the Council and include but are not limited to the following:

- Financial Management
- Governance
- Community Engagement
- Asset Management
- Service Delivery
- Human Resources Management
- Information and Technology
- Property management
- Business Systems
- Regulatory Enforcement
- Contracting and Procurement

6.3 Project Risks

Project risks all projects have risks and risk management is a critical function of project management. The identification, communication, assessment, mitigation, recording and reviewing of project risk is paramount for the success of Council projects.
