Council allocates Bushfire RECOVERY FUNDS

Kyogle Council will spend bushfire recovery grant funds on infrastructure restoration for rural landholders, improvements to evacuation centres, and waiving development applications costs for bush-fire affected residents to rebuild homes and sheds.

Further funds will go toward economic stimulus activities such as event sponsorship, funding an additional round of Community Financial Assistance and offering a new grant program to local businesses operating in the village areas – see story on page 3.

Funding has been provided by the Federal Government through its Bushfire Recovery Program ($1.3 million) and the State Government's Bushfire Community Resilience and Economic Recovery Fund ($100,000).

It comes as the NSW Government announced it has set up a one-stop bushfire customer care service for people and businesses affected by the fires.

Those impacted by the bushfires can now access all available assistance through Bushfire Customer Care at Service NSW – this includes all assistance offered by the NSW State Government, the Federal Government and local councils.

To connect with a bushfire customer care specialist, call Service NSW between 7am and 7pm on 13 77 88, go to a Service NSW Centre or Mobile Service Centre, or log on to the Service NSW website at www.service.nsw.gov.au.

Residents and businesses needing help are urged to contact Service NSW bushfire customer care in the first instance. If Service NSW is unable to provide any assistance, people can then contact Council's Strategic Initiatives Officer Suzie Coulston on 6632 1611 to see if they are eligible for any of the council programs.

Council's infrastructure restoration for rural landholders program will cover the costs of clearing fence lines adjoining state-owned land, fencing materials, materials for repairs to damaged water infrastructure, as well as running costs associated with the BlazeAid camp at Woodenbong.

Funding will be limited to those costs where there is direct fire damage, and there is no other funding available or the property owner does not meet eligibility requirements.

The money will be distributed by Council staff based recommendations from the BlazeAid co-ordinator and DPI Recovery Officer.

Council has also set aside recovery funds to cover the cost of development applications and associated approvals for people rebuilding structures lost or damaged in the fires.

The Council will engage an external planning consultant to act as a concierge for affected property owners to help them through the process.

Funds have also been provided to improve the capacity and capability of the community led emergency evacuation centres. These include the Kyogle Memorial Institute Hall and Kyogle Community Centre, the Wiangaree Hall, the Woodenbong Hall and Cross Roads Church, the Bonalbo Hall, the Mallanganee Hall and Campdraft Grounds and the Tabulam Hall.

Council will conduct audits of each facility before putting together a program of works and training for each of the community led evacuation centres.

from the Mayor ...

Council has really hit the ground running this year with various projects being rolled out across the local government area.

With water security being a big issue, Council is currently looking to establish additional groundwater sources in Bonalbo and Tabulam as part of the Drought Communities Program Extension and to enhance the existing town water supply in Bonalbo.

The drilling has commenced in Bonalbo with mixed success to date.

The first exploratory drilling near the existing river extraction point has provided a location that looks to be suitable for a future bore, but the second location near Council's works depot was found not to be suitable.

There are still a couple more locations for exploratory drilling in Bonalbo, and once completed the constructed bores will be tested for both water quality and quantity before decisions are made as to which bore or bores will be permanently commissioned.

A similar process is then to occur in Tabulam.

The exploration and testing is expected to take two to three months to finalise, and the commissioning of the final bores will take a further two to three months to complete.

However, these bores will hopefully go some way to ensuring our future water supply in these areas, particularly during periods of drought.

Three Australia Day events were held across the Council area, and I would like to take this opportunity to thank the committees who coordinated these events for their communities.

My congratulations to not only all the Australia Day award winners but the nominees as well - not everyone can win but to be nominated is an honour in itself and recognition by your community of your contribution to, or excellence in a particular field.

A lot of work goes into the coordination of these events and I have heard nothing but positive feedback from these communities.

At the Woodenbong celebrations, Cr Lindsay Passfield was the recipient of the LGNSW Outstanding Service to Community medallion, organised by Council in conjunction with the office of our State Member Janelle Saffin.

Cr Passfield has indicated that he will be stepping down this year, and I would like to congratulate him on his award and thank him for more than 20 years' community service.

The newly built Bonalbo Hall deck, pictured, was also launched on Australia Day, a project delivered in partnership between Council and the Bonalbo community.

Congratulations to all those involved with a special mention to Vilya and Marion for their lovely welcome and enthusiasm for their ongoing plans for the deck.

Disaster recovery meetings post-bushfires have been held in Woodenbong and Bonalbo in January and ongoing support is available.

For assistance or help finding what assistance is most appropriate for you, contact Bushfire Customer Care at Service NSW, phone 13 77 88.

Although I have had a few health issues recently, I would like to assure everyone that I am almost fully recovered and back on deck.

We have a project application in under Fixing Country Roads for $33 million for the Clarence Way and the projects funded under the Stronger Country Communities fund have already begun, and will hopefully be finalised this year, particularly those projects West of the Range.

We have a big couple of months coming up, particularly in terms of lobbying so stay tuned for news.

Until next time,

Cr Danielle Mulholland

HAVE YOUR SAY on disability inclusion in NSW

Local people with disability, their carers and service providers are urged to have their say on disability inclusion in NSW.

The Disability Inclusion Act 2014 is currently being reviewed and individuals, peak bodies and government agencies are encouraged to contribute.

To have your say go to www.dcj.nsw.gov.au/dia-review and read the discussion paper. To provide feedback on the discussion paper, you can complete an online survey or make a formal submission to the committee.

The review closes on 30 March 2020.

Applications now open for Council's special FIRE RECOVERY GRANTS

Council is calling for applications for a special round of Community Financial Assistance Grants including event sponsorship and support, and a one-off round of Business Grants as part of its bushfire recovery program.

Grants of up to $5,000 without any co-contribution and $25,000 with a co-contribution are available for both programs.

People and organisations running events are strongly encouraged to apply for a Community Financial Assistance Grant.

The Community Financial Assistance Grants will be open to individuals and organisations.

Business Grants are only available for businesses, or the owners of a commercial premise, in one of the villages (ie excluding Kyogle).

Priority for the Business Grants will be given to applications that contribute to;

- Local employment or training
- The visitor economy
- Improved visual amenity or activation of commercial buildings and streetscapes
- Improvements or fit-out of registered food premises.

Applications for both grants are to be submitted on-line via the Council website and will close at 4pm on Monday, 6 April, 2020.

Successful applicants will notified in May.

CR PASSFIELD receives LGNSW Award

Cr Lindsay Passfield has received an Outstanding Service Award from Local Government NSW.

The award was presented to Cr Passfield on Australia Day by Federal Member for Page, Kevin Hogan.

It was organised by Council in conjunction with Member for Lismore, Janelle Saffin.

The award recognises Cr Passfield's 21 years continuous service to Kyogle Council and the Council community.

First elected in 1999, Cr Passfield initially agreed to stand for Council after being approached by several members of the community concerned there was no Woodenbong representative on the council.

Roads and bridges were his passion then, and they continue to be his passion today.

During his time on Council, Cr Passfield has worked to improve the condition of Council's road and bridge network and continues to lobby State and Federal governments to improve and develop strategic road links between the Northern Rivers and Queensland's southern Darling Downs and Brisbane.

He also is a vocal advocate for the timber industry and timber communities.

During his 21 years on Kyogle Council, Cr Passfield has served on Council's former Technical Services Committee, Woodenbong Australia Day Committee, Summerland Way Promotional Committee, Downs to Rivers Action Committee, the Woodenbong to Legume Stakeholders Group, and National Timber Councils' Association.

Member for Page, Kevin Hogan, presents Cr Lindsay Passfield with an Outstanding Service Award.

LOCAL HALLS to receive $10,000 grants

Council will provide 21 community halls across the local government area with $10,000 each thanks to its inclusion in the Federal Government's Drought Communities Program Extension.

Council currently covers the rates for the 21 community-owned and run halls.

The committees which run the halls will be required to spend the $10,000 on activities to repair, maintain, upgrade, construct or fit-out the important community facilities.

Council received $1 million under the Drought Communities Program Extension, which is an economic stimulus package for drought affected areas.

The remaining funds will be spent on: renewable energy projects ($400,000); water supply projects including bores for Bonalbo, Tabulam and Kyogle and additional water carter fill points as Woodenbong and Bonalbo ($360,000); and a security system for the Kyogle Community Gym ($30,000).

PRESCHOOLS receive one-off grants

Preschools in bushfire impacted areas of the Lismore electorate will benefit from a one-off payment by the NSW Government to provide fee relief and help with the recovery from this summer's devastating fires.

Schools announced by National MLC Ben Franklin which will benefit from the grant include: Bentley Community Pre-School; Ngallingnee Jarjum Tabulam & District Community Preschool; Bundgeam Community Pre-School; Cawongla Playhouse; Eden Creek/Fairymount Pre-School; Woodenbong Pre-School Kindergarten; Kyogle Pre-School.

They cover: Norman Johnston Park; Mallanganee Lookout; Wangaree Rodeo Grounds; Woodenbong Sports Ground; Kyogle Recreation Reserve; Old Bonalbo Reserve (Tennis Courts); Tabulam Sports Oval; Mallanganee Sports Ground; Aboody Park; and ANZAC Park.

Council has also prepared a Draft Generic Plan of Management covering all other community land where Council is the land manager.

The draft documents incorporate recommendations from the earlier Visions of the Villages Masterplans and allow for key projects which have been funded through the Stronger Country Communities Fund.

New exhibition tells

CARLA'S STORY

Regional emerging artist Carla Davey will be exhibiting a new body of her work in the Stepping Up Gallery in the foyer of Council's Roxy Gallery.

I WAS....SHE IS....I AM! is Carla's story of when she was born, where she went to school, how people saw her with a disability and how she became an artist.

Carla is involved with RealArtWorks, a not-for-profit 'post disability' arts organisation that works alongside artists in assisting them to undertake their practice as well as supporting inclusive opportunities for artists to collaborate on larger community art-based projects.

From her studio space at SeeSpace, Carla writes: "I have my own art space.

"I like it. I love it.

"No-one can touch my stuff.

"I play music and dance.

"I make art so I can be free."

I WAS....SHE IS....I AM! by Carla

Davey will be on show from 4 March, 2020.

I am Carla

I am special because....

I am talented.

I am funny

I make people laugh

I have a heart

A really big heart

Making art makes my heart grow

It makes my fingers feel people

It makes me feel their happiness.

I say to you art is really good for you

Do it.

MOTHER AND SON join together for Roxy show

Council's Roxy Gallery will celebrate its first year in its new abode with an exhibition by long-time local artist Julie St Aubyn.

Remains to Be Seen is the title Julie has given her retrospective exhibition which will be held at the gallery from 4-29 March.

The exhibition spans 20 years' of creative works and features paintings, drawings and mosaics, pictured right.

It is a testament to Julie's journey as a new settler to the bush and the striking contrast she has experienced between urban living and country life.

The imagery in Julie's works are drawn from both the natural and unseen worlds, with some obvious and some subtle.

Julie's childhood intrigue with, and fear of, death and her interest in the human spirit and our place in the world, lead her into working within the fields of palliative care and funeral directing.

This has influenced her creative journey and prompted her to explore themes of impermanence and death.

Julie has asked her son Jasper St Aubyn West to contribute some of his work into this exhibition.

Jasper is a multidisciplinary artist with a primary focus on the moving image.

His visual aesthetic has been heavily influenced by his many years working in the film and television industry and he often blends cinematic compositions and narrative elements with surreal and unexpected flourishes.

He twists and transforms the familiar to create new perspectives and windows into other worlds. Jasper is a young Kyogle person who has gone on to achieve some amazing accolades in his field of multimedia and he has produced a video of his works for the gallery to project throughout the course of this exhibition.

Remains To Be Seen will officially open on Friday 6 March from 6-8pm.

Water security a PRIORITY

Although water restrictions at Kyogle, Woodenbong, and Bonalbo have eased due to recent rain, water security for our communities remains a priority.

Water restrictions were reduced to Level 1 at midnight on 18 February 2020.

Under Level 1 restrictions, domestic micro-sprays and drippers/subsurface can be used for a maximum of 15 minutes and hand held hoses can be used for one hour every second day, between the hours of 4pm and 9am, on an odd or even day matching your house number.

Other domestic irrigation methods and unattended hoses are banned.

For commercial premises the same restrictions apply, except for businesses such as nurseries and where business hours dictate use—then sprinklers can be used for up to two hours a day.

IMPROVEMENT projects completed

Council has completed improvements to the Bonalbo pool, the Old Bonalbo Hall and the Woodenbong Hall.

All three projects were funded under Round 2 of the State Government's Stronger Country Communities (SCC) program.

Improvement works at the Bonalbo pool included the installation of accessible stairs, and the refurbishment of the grandstand and the male and female amenities.

The pool was also painted as part of the project which cost $60,000, of which Council contributed $10,000.

The Old Bonalbo Soldiers Memorial Hall got an interior paint job and a septic system upgrade as part of its SCC improvement project. The hall's timber floors also were sanded and sealed.

The Old Bonalbo Hall Trust chipped in $9,000 of the $59,000 total cost of the project.

The Woodenbong Hall received an electrical upgrade and had air conditioning installed under the SCC program.

The project cost $55,000 and involved the installation of six inverter reverse cycle air conditioners.

Accessible stairs have been installed at the Bonalbo pool and the grandstands refurbished.

The interior of the Old Bonalbo Soldiers Memorial Hall has been repainted as part of a SCC project.

2020 Woodenbong Australia Day Award winners, nominees and the Australia Day ambassador line up for photos in the newly air conditioned Woodenbong Hall.

FLOOD DELAYS

Council's works program

The heavy rainfall in February has caused slight delays to the works program.

Council staff had some initial extra work dealing with minor bridge repairs and clean-up of landslips and silted bridges but response was rapid and access was quickly restored in most areas.

Three roads remain closed due to flood damage at time of writing – Sextonville Road where bridge approaches were badly damaged, Boomi Creek Road where a culvert was washed out, and Dyraaba Road where a bridge was washed away.

Many other roads have suffered damage to road surfaces and culverts and signage has been lost in many places, especially near bridges.

All repair and restoration work will be funded by the Federal Government's Natural Disaster Relief and Recovery Arrangements and Council will add these works in to the existing work program which will have an impact on previously planned maintenance work.

One project delayed by rainfall is the Hootons Road bridge replacement where the piling contractor's access to the site is currently impeded by higher water levels. Construction of the new bridge was expected to commence in February, but is now likely to begin in March.

Burt Rayner Bridge on Findon Creek Road is almost complete. The bridge was opened to traffic in mid-February but a few small jobs such as sealing of bridge approaches and installation of signage are required before the project is finalised.

The replacement of Mulcahys Bridge on Needhams Road is expected to be open to traffic by the time this newsletter reaches mailboxes.

Council is very pleased with the results of the work carried out in February to improve a section of Omagh Road.

Due to some cost savings on other projects, we were able to extend the length of the section of road rehabilitated, although the heavy rain in mid-February slightly delayed completion of the work which then flowed on to delay commencement of improvements at the intersection of Imbreys Road and Summerland Way.

After completion of the Imbreys Road project, the crew will move to Burnetts Creek on the Summerland Way.

Rain also slowed progress on the Clarence Way sealing project south of Bruxner Highway, but work is still moving along at a good pace.

Earthworks have been carried out in February to upgrade safety at the intersections with Old Lawrence Road and Pagans Flat Road with improvements to sight distances and road alignment.
